Applicant,

This is the first of a two-part application for membership. You must submit a criminal background check from the clerk of court with this application. This application will assist the squad in gaining information about you and your experiences. This also provides you with some of the requirements that you must meet.

DISCLAIMER: The act of rescue can be very dangerous and rescuers have been injured and killed in the act of rescue. Applicants should be of good health both physical and mental, and physically capable of completing assigned tasks. Examples of such tasks are listed on attachment # 1.

Attachment #1

Listed are a few of the different tasks that the rescue candidate should be capable of performing while wearing full protective clothing in a hostile work environment;

- >Operate both as a member of a team and independently at incidents.
- >Spend extensive time outside exposed to the elements of nature. I.e. wind, rain, snow, ice, hot, cold temps.
- >Face exposure to infectious agents such as Hepatitis B or HIV.
- >Wear personal protective equipment weighing approximately +/- 50 lbs.
- > Capable of lifting or assisting in the moving of patients and or equipment weighing approximately +/-100 pounds
- > Capable of ascending and descending ladders used by the authority having jurisdiction while carrying equipment or persons
- > Capable of ascending or descending ropes used for life safety
- > Capable of assisting with the extrication of victims from vehicles or confined spaces

>Read and comprehend documents, placards and labels with accuracy of building markings and transportation loads.

After the return of these documents you will be scheduled for an interview with the rescue squad elected officers during a third Thursday night of the month officer meeting.

Thank you for being interested in North Iredell Rescue Squad. If you have questions feel free to call. After you have completed this portion of the application, return it to a Chief Officer or daytime staff. M-F 7am to 5pm or call listed below.
